Celebrate the delicate beauty of cherry blossom with new Sweetbird Cherry Blossom Iced Tea Syrup. This delightful syrup, created by our flavour experts, blends the subtle floral notes of cherry blossoms with a gentle drying black tea finish, offering a taste steeped in history.

Made with real black tea and 4% cherry juice, this tea draws on the increasing trend for Asian flavours with a unique and subtle twist. Free from artificial colours, GMOs, and registered with The Vegan Society, the new syrup can be used as a simple iced tea with still or sparkling water, or blended with ice to create a refreshing, floral granita.
